Quaker Marriages.

The rules of the Society of Friends have been recently relaxed in order to allow of what are called mixed marriages being solemnized at their meeting houses. The peculiarity of the marriage ceremony is that no minister or officer interferes. The marriage vow is repeated by the FRUITS. bride and bridegroom standing up, after a short interval of silence, in front of the congregation. A ring VEGETABLES, is generally put on after the actual ceremony is finished, in deference to ancient custom, which the rules of the society have not been strong enough to break through. A certificate recording the actual words used by the newly married couple, and giving a description of their parentage, is then signed, first in presence of the meeting by the bride and bridegroom, and then by a number of their friends, and is afterwards read aloud to the meet-

The pull of the pills and the treatment, and even before I had used up the two boxes of pills, I began to feel beneficial results from them. My pains were not so bad; I felt warmer; my head felt better; my food began to relish and agree with me; I could straighten up; the feeling began to come back into my limbs; I began to be able to get about on crutches; my eye came back as good as ever, and now, after the use of eight boxes of the pills—at a cost of only $4.00—see!—I can with the help of a cane only, walk all about the house and yard, can saw wood, and on pleasant days I walk down town. My stomach trouble is gone; I have gained 10 pounds; I feel like a new man, and when the spring opens I expect to be able. when the spring opens I expect to be able to renew my organ and plano agency. I cannot speak in too high terms of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, as I know they saved my life after all the doctors had given me up as incurable."

Such is the wonderful story which the Express reporter has succeeded in securing verification of in all its details, from hospital records where Mr. Quant was treated and from the doctors who had the case in hand and who pronounced him incurable. Let it be remembered that all this hospital treatment was two and three years ago, while his cure, by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People, has been effected since last September, 1891. Dr. Starr is house physician of the Roosevelt hospital, situated corner of Ninth avenue and Fifty-ninth street. In reply to inquiry he said he remembered the case of Mr. Quant very well and treated him some, but that he was chiefly treated and under the more especial care of Dr. Ware. He said he regarded this case as he did all cases of locomotor ataxa as incurable. In order that our reporter might get a copy of the history of axa as incurable. In order that our reporter might get a copy of the history of the case of Mr. Quant from the hospital record he very courteously gave him a letter of which the following is a copy:

A Prize Picture Puzzle.

EXPLANATION.—The following picture contains four faces, a man and his three daughters. Any one can find the man's face, but it is not so easy to distinguish the faces of the three young ladies. The picture was published in a few newspapers some time ago, and attracted considerable attention to our standard remedies. We now offer a new prize competition inconnection with it. As the sole object is to introduce our medicines into new homes, those who entered the former competition are requered to compete in this one. As to the reliability of "The Ford Pill Co.," and the estimation in which medicines are held in Toronto, Canada, where they are best known, patrons are referred to the day newspapers, wholesale druggists and leading business houses generally of Toronto.

SPECIAL PRIZES FOR EACH STATE.

A special prize of a Silk Dress Pattern (sixteen yards, any color), or a first-class Sewing Machine (any make desired) will be given to the first person in each State in the U.S. who can make out the three daughters faces. We shall give away 200 valuable prizes, besides special prizes, (if there should be so many sending correct answers.) No charge is made for boxing and packing of prizes. The names of the leading prize winners will be published in connection with our advertisement in leading newspapers next month. Extra premiums will be given to only those who are willing to assist in introducing our medicines. No thing is charged for the prizes in any way. They are absolutely given away to introduce and advertise "Ford's Prize Remedies," which are standard medicines, and will be used in every family for years where they have been once introduced. All prizes will be awarded strictly in order of merit, and with perfect satisfaction to the public. The remedies will be sent by mail, postpaid, and prizes free of daty.

A WATCH FOR EVERY CORRECT ANSWER.

An extra premium of a genuine "Pourless" Watch, (sem winder,) will be awarded to ever person who sends a correct answer within 30 days after this odvertisement appears, in case they should no se fortunate enough to seeme one of the larger prizes.
